CAMERON BANKS ARE SAFE; DEPOSITORS ARE CO-OPERATING ROOSEVELT PLEDGES AGGRESSIVE LEADERSHIP

BANKS HERE READY TO OPEN WHEN MORATORIUM ENDS

Cameron Banks are safe and funds of depositors are secure. The moratorium on banking first proclaimed by Governor Ferguson and later strengthened by the national government at Washington, has in no way affected the safety or security of Cameron Banks.

"Miss Business"

Here's the way business looks to the students of the business school at Texas Christian university, Ft. Worth, and business must be good, from the appearance of Miss Doris Higgins, who was recently named Miss Business at the annual banquet of this school.

$7000 RELIEF FUNDS ALLOTTED FOR MARCH

Chairman J. P. Love of the Milam County Emergency Relief Association authorized the statement that $7000 had been allotted to Milam county for relief work during the month of March.

Chairman Love said that until the banking situation has been cleared up so that cash can be obtained that in all probability workers will be paid in groceries.

With the additional appropriation for March Mr. Love said the Association was ready to resume work on the highways and other public places authorized under the rules of the Association.

STANFORD ACCEPTS 35 YEAR PRISON SENTENCE

Charles Stanford, 43, withdrew his appeal in district court here this week and accepted the sentence of the jury for 35 years in the Texas prison.

He was convicted for slaying his brother in law, Luther Pickens last Christmas at the Pickens home near Rockdale. The shooting occurred when Stanford went to the home to effect reconciliation with his estranged wife.

He will go to Huntsville to begin his term in prison.

City Attorney Challenges Power Rate Statements

In the latter part of the month of February of this year, the Texas Power & Light Company inserted advertisements in practically every newspaper in communities and cities where it serves its customers electricity. Both of the local papers carried the advertisement. "Electricity is Cheaper" was the heading of this intensive, extensive and expensive advertising campaign directed from headquarters. The public should read such advertisements and make comparisons. The assertion was made therein that electricity is cheaper today than ever before and 39% cheaper than in 1928.

Reading the figures as released, one would be inclined to accept the statement without reservation or modification. However, by way of comparison and adding all other elements of expense that are necessarily made part of the expense which must be paid by the public, there Confidence was the prevailing unanimous sentiment of the people and although some slight inconvenience has resulted to merchants and others as a result of the closing of banks, all is serene and business will be resumed under normal conditions when the moratorium is lifted by President Roosevelt.

Action at Washington by President Roosevelt and members of his cabinet together with the convening of Congress at noon today further composes the situation and Cameron banks are to be given the additional benefit of the strength and guarantee of the United States government so that no depositor need have fear for the safety of his deposits.

Banking holidays were made necessary by unprecedented raids in the north and east. When Governor Ferguson asked Texas banks to close, it was only a measure of precaution, because Texas could not be expected to furnish money for the business of the nation. Texas was one of the few remaining states where holidays had not been proclaimed.

The banking holiday was the salvation of the banking structure of the country and as a result of it, everybody is made more secure and safe.

While there is no definite date set for reopening, Cameron banks were ready and will resume business as usual when the government issues orders for resumption of banking.

As a result of the proclamation issued by the Governor of Texas declaring a banking holiday, a public meeting was held in the district (See BANKS on page 4)

RAILROADS PAY $43,187 FREIGHT TRUCKS $6.74

Railroads in Milam County in 1931 paid into the treasury $43,187.41 while trucks listed as freight line transit units paid only $6.74.

These figures are disclosed in a recent report made by the railroad companies in comparison with taxes paid by trucks engaged in hauling freight into and out of the county.

These figures do not include taxes paid on locally owned trucks but those engaged in highway freight lines.

All figures may be verified from the records in Milam county.

It is also shown that for the state of Texas the railroad companies paid $8,595,078.80 in taxes while trucks engaged in freight lines on highways paid only $80,261.44.

This amazing disclosure reveals for the first time the contrast of support to the government between railroads and freight trucks.

Cotton Queen

Miss Phyllis Matlock, president of the Students' association of Texas College for Women, Denton, has been named queen of the second annual Cotton Ball and pageant at Texas A. and M. College, College Station. The king will be named from the Texas A. and M. student body.

W. A. MORRISON NAMED TO EDUCATION BOARD

W. A. Morrison, attorney and widely known educational authority, has been appointed by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson as a member of the State Board of Education.

For more than twenty years Mr. Morrison has been president of the Milam County Board of Education and his work for the public school and administrative knowledge of school affairs led the governor to request him to serve on the board for the state.

Mr. Morrison has been a member of the Milam County bar for many years and is engaged in the practice of law with his son, W. A. Morrison, Jr., as associate.

Announcement of the appointment was made Wednesday. The Senate must confirm the appointment to make it effective.

LOCAL STUDENTS ENACT INAUGURAL CEREMONIES

On Tuesday, March 7 the American History classes of Yoe High gave a reproduction of the inauguration of March 4, 1933 at Washington.

The first two scenes were given as radio programs while the last two were reproduced on the stage.

The procession from the White House to the Capitol was described from a short wave car and airplane. When the President and his party reached the capital "Mike" was taken over by the announcer in the senate chamber. Here the audience was given an accurate and colorful description of the ceremonies to the new vice president and the new senators. The scene was shifted to east portico of the capitol where the president elect to take his oath.

At this point the students representing the dignitaries who were to take part in the ceremonies came on (See STUDENTS on page 4)

Student Honors For Miss Imogene Sapp

Miss Imogene Sapp, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Sapp, who is attending Our Lady of the Lake College in San Antonio, was an honor student at the close of the first semester, making B in the entire term.

She was one among those selected to appear in "The Palms," a student edited paper of the school.

Miss Sapp and Miss Dorothy Rehen, both sophomores in school, wrote jointly on the subject "Vitalizing the Teaching of History." Those so honored must make high grades to be asked to contribute to the "Palms." Miss Sapp's name appears second on the list of students making "B" grades, where 22 student's names appear in the "Palms" according to points of average.

JOHN N. GARNER TAKES OATH AS VICE PRESIDENT

Washington—In a brief inaugural address, John N. Garner, the only Texan ever to hold the office of Vice President of the United States, told the Senate at noon Saturday over which he is to preside, that his desire was to cooperate and to be helpful.

"Senators," he said, "this is my first and possibly may be my last opportunity to address the senate. I am particularly anxious to ingratiate myself into your favorable consideration."

"Knowing from some observation the disposition of the senate not to discuss any matter unless it is important and under particular consideration, I deem it inappropriate to say more than that I come as your presiding officer to co-operate, to be helpful, to do the best I can to help you conduct the proceedings of the senate."

"In carrying out that idea which I have, I shall forego saying more than that I am happy to be over here, I am happy to meet you all, and glad of the opportunity to get better acquainted with senators."

Takes Oath With Program For National Recovery

Washington—Franklin D. Roosevelt took over the Presidency of an expectant nation Saturday, March 4, with a bold assurance of leadership and a pledge that he will demand war time powers if necessary to dissipate the forces of depression.

Standing bareheaded on the specially constructed platform in front of the capitol, the newly sworn president told a vast throng that he would "assume unhesitatingly the leadership" of the nation

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

Text of President's Address

The text of President Roosevelt's inaugural address follows:

"I am certain that my fellow Americans expect that on my induction into the presidency I will address them with a candor and a decision which the present situation of our nation impels.

"This is pre-eminently the time to speak the truth, the whole truth, frankly and boldly. Nor need we shrink from honestly facing conditions in our country today. This great nation will endure as it has endured, will revive and will prosper. So first of all let me assert my firm belief that the only thing we have to fear is fear itself—nameless, unreasoning, unjustified terror, which paralyzes needed efforts to convert retreat into advance.

MUST HAVE SUPPORT

"In every dark hour of our national life a leadership of frankness and vigor has met with that understanding and support of the people themselves which is essential to victory. I am convinced that you will again give that support to leadership in these critical days.

"In such a spirit on my part and on yours we face our common difficulties. They concern, thank God, only material things. Values have shrunk to fantastic levels; taxes have risen; our ability to pay has fallen; government of all kinds is faced by serious curtailment of income; the means of exchange are frozen in the currents of trade; the withered leaves of industrial enterprise lie everywhere around us.

Eight-Point Plan of Action
He outlined in general terms an eight-point "line of attack" on economic problems—including "adequate but sound money"—and said he would submit detailed recommendations to a special session of congress.

The new president expressed hope "the normal balance of executive and legislative authority may be wholly adequate to meet the unprecedented task before us," President Roosevelt said.

"But it may be that an unprecedented demand and need for undelayed action may call for temporary departure from that normal balance of public procedure."

Prepared for Drastic Action

"I am prepared under my constitutional duty to recommend the measures that a stricken nation in the midst of a stricken world may require. These measures, or such other measures as the congress may build out of its experience and wisdom, I shall seek, within my constitutional authority, to bring to speedy adoption.

"But in the event that the congress shall fail to take one of these two courses, and in the event that the national emergency is still critical (See INAUGURATION on page 8)

Lady Took Cardui And Got Rid of Pain In Her Side

"Last summer, my health was bad, so I began taking Cardui," writes Mrs. H. E. Slaughter, of Norman, Okla. "My mother had given me Cardui in girlhood, so naturally I turned to it when I felt I needed it. I felt run-down and a general weakness. I had bad, dizzy headaches when everything would seem to dance before my eyes. My right side pained me so much, but since taking Cardui the pain has left me. I have taken several bottles of Cardui and have improved a great deal."

By DR. WILLIAM J. SCHOLLES

Few persons reach adult life without having measles, and one attack is usually the limit. In view of these facts many people have the idea that one might as well expose himself to it and be through with it, as he is bound to get it sooner or later, anyhow.

While measles is not a serious disease we never know what case may terminate fatally. Its general mortality rate is about 5 per cent. Very brief exposure will communicate the disease to others; nor is it necessary to come into close contact with the patient.

More Than "Skin Deep"

Most people think of measles only in terms of rash, whereas the disease is much more than skin deep. The changes in the mucus membrane lining the mouth, nose, eyes, throat and bronchial tubes are just as much a part of the disease as are those of the skin. There is virtually always marked inflammation of these parts which causes all the complications and after effects that go with measles. And the unfortunate part of it is that these complications occur mostly in children under four years of age, who are the least able to cope with them.

The most common complications are broncho-pneumonia, inflammation of the bowels, disease of the ear and membranous croup. The most dangerous of all, of course, pneumonia—which occurs most often in children under two years of age.

Measles, as a rule, develop gradually, the first symptoms being those of a cold in the head—redness of the eye lids, watering of the eyes, aversion to light, sneezing, and running of the nose.

This so called invasion period lasts three or four days, and is followed by the appearance of the rash, which is first seen behind the ears, on the neck, and the roots of the hair along the forehead. The next day the rash shows up on the face, front of the neck, upper part of the chest and the back. On the third day the remainder of the trunk is covered and scattered spots appear on the extremities. By the time it has fully covered the limbs it has started to fade from the face, and it continues to fade in the order of its appearance.

Power Rate

Kilowatt hours of electricity for $4.85; today, for the same amount of electricity in a 5-room house, the price is $5.10, or 9 1/2% more than in 1928.

The service charge must be paid each month the same as the rate charge, though imaginary from the standpoint of actual service, reminds one of the man who was brought before the judge for taking a rope. On further examination it developed that the defendant admitted that a cow happened to be tied to the rope at the time of the taking. The judge was rather lenient with the defendant insofar as the rope was concerned, but was of the opinion that the rope had too much cow. The public would be inclined to be lenient with the Company insofar as the rates are concerned, but there seems to be too much service charge.

We are not unmindful of the fact that utilities selling water, electricity and gas to the public depend on the volume of business for profit. In other words, the more of the commodity sold the profit is greater. Electricity is generated for one-half cent or less, according to Government report, for each Kilowatt hour. More electricity is used today than in 1928. Probably more than twice as much electricity is used today as compared with several years ago. Radios, electric clocks, fridges, washing machines, oil mills, Gins and other devices and inventions, too numerous to mention, are moved by electricity.

The company selling electricity to its customers operates its business without the usual losses. Before electricity is connected a deposit of $5.00 is required. If the bill is not paid within a specified time each month the current is disconnected and for connection a charge of $1.00 is made.

The grocer and dry goods merchant are requested, as an accommodation, to extend credit to their customers. The money that must be paid regularly each month for electricity is sent away. It is taken out of circulation for the local merchants. The community receives no further benefit from the money forwarded to the great industrial centers. It is therefore, no wonder that financial conditions in cities that do not own their own utility plants, are becoming worse. Citizens may complain about high taxes, but it must be remembered that taxation is the only source of revenue when utility plants are owned by outside institutions.

It was the purpose of the Federal Government to impose a tax on utilities in order to equalize the burden of taxation. Through the efforts of the patrons of the utilities,

Black-Draught Clears Up Sluggish, Dull Feeling

"I have used Thedford's Black-Draught for constipation for a long time, and find it gives relief for this trouble," writes Mrs. Frank Champion, of Wynne, Ark. "I think it is good for spells caused from gas on the stomach. If I get up in the morning feeling dull and sluggish, a dose of Black-Draught taken three times a day will cause the feeling to pass away, and in a day or two I feel like a new person. After many years of use we would not exchange Black-Draught for any medicine."

P. S.—If you have CHILDREN, give them the new, pleasant-tasting SYRUP of Thedford's Black-Draught.

Smoots and Crisp, the tax becomes a charge on the consumer. If you will examine your next light bill, you will find the amount of tax added thereto.

In the month of February this year the City Council of the town of Georgetown transferred $2938.30 from the utilities to the general fund. Georgetown owns its own light plant and you would be surprised at the rates. According to the prevailing rates of the Texas Power and Light Company, based on a ten room house and the use of 20 Kilowatt hours of electricity, including the service charge, the citizens of Cameron pay $2.60; but the citizens of Georgetown pay for the same amount of electricity $1.80, or a saving of 80 cents. The money is kept at home; the town is well lighted; all the schools and churches pay 4 cents less for every Kilowatt hour of electricity. This is one of the many towns and cities in Texas which possesses these blessings, including a lower tax rate.

The citizens of Cameron can render valuable service to the City Council in giving it moral support and encouragement in any move that it will make in the right direction in the future.

B. P. MATOCHA,
City Attorney.

court room here Friday afternoon.

T. S. Henderson presided at the meeting and called on Oxsheer Smith, president of the Citizens National Bank of Cameron, to give whatever information he had on the subject. Mr. Smith in a brief statement made it clear that the trouble that rendered this step necessary originated with banks in other parts of the state.

He also made clear that our bankers were unanimous in their desire to remain open and do business in the regular way and that while they carried out the proclamation with reluctance, that their action was in line with good law abiding citizenship.

Mr. Smith's remarks were followed by short talks by Dr. J. L. Denison, R. L. Batte, F. A. Marek, C. W. Lawrence and others. Each in turn praised the local bankers as law-abiding citizens for their action and expressed confidence in our banks and bankers.

A resolution was introduced by W. O. Triggs expressing confidence in Milam county's banks and bankers. This resolution was greeted with enthusiasm and when put to a vote was carried unanimously.

P. Hurdle at the piano, and later Mrs. Harsha responded to the request to sing it again.

Mrs. W. E. Gaither, president of the History Club in Cameron, which is one of the oldest clubs here, gave a talk on the activities of the club, which was much enjoyed.

A delightful talk along the lines of the work of the Parent Teachers Association was given by the president, Mrs. Simmie Burns, Jr.

Mrs. Graham Gillis, chairman of the United Workers under the direction of the Red Cross in supplying clothing for the needy of Milam county, gave an interesting talk of the work and how it was progressing, giving valuable information.

Hon. O. L. Kidd, attorney, spoke on "Assets and Liabilities" of our community, which gave many outstanding facts, interspersed with numerous pleasantries.

T. A. Fisher, superintendent of the Cameron schools, was an able speaker and stressed the facts of the present conditions of the schools at these times, stating the Yoe High school would have the largest graduating class this year in its history, with probably 110 graduates, and also announced the County Meet which will be held on March 17.

Rev. O. C. Acree, president of the Lions Club, gave interesting information on the many activities of that Club for Cameron this year.

Mrs. Katherine Robbins was hostess for the evening, and assisted by her three daughters, Misses Katherine, Lois and Ruby Robbins, served a salad plate with hot tea. This was followed with a few games.

Those present other than members of the club were: Rev. and Mrs. O. C. Acree, Mrs. W. E. Gaither, Mrs. Graham Gillis, Mrs. Simmie Burns, Jr., Mrs. William G. Harsha, Mrs. McKee, Mrs. B. P. Hurdle, Miss Doris Davis, Misses Katherine, Lois and Ruby Robbins and Miss Bernice McLerran.

work, and was prominent in this part of the state for many years. She was the last of twelve children to go, the McCown family having been one of the most prominent pioneer families of this section of the state, she had made many friends from early childhood. She was a cousin of the late Governor Sul Ross, once governor of Texas.

Celebrated Golden Wedding

While living in Cameron her home was the center of attraction for the younger society set, where the young gathered for social functions and the older citizens found true Southern hospitality.

Last July Dr. and Mrs. Reed celebrated their Golden wedding anniversary, given by their daughter, Mrs. W. B. Thomas and husband at their home in Rogers, when some 200 relatives and friends gathered to celebrate the wedding, which was of the most brilliant like occasions in this section of the state, guests attending from all over the state.

In Old Cemetery

It was most fitting that the remains of deceased were brought back to the spot in her native county to be laid to rest in the quiet family burying grounds where her ancestors sleep by the side of the waters of Little River, where she spent her early childhood days, and learned to love so much. She was laid to rest in a light grey casket surrounded with gorgeous array of floral offerings, giving silent messages of love from her many friends and relatives.

She is survived by her husband, Dr. Reed and eight children: Mrs. W. B. Thomas of Rogers, Mrs. J. W. Simpson of Dallas, Roger Reed and Willis Reed of Austin, Volney Reed of Temple, William Reed of Holland, Mrs. Maggie Mae Farthing and Miss Susie Reed of Austin, one daughter, Martha, died at the age of eighteen months, and 12 grandchildren.

Pall bearers were her nephews: Thompson Kemp, Geo. A. Hooks, Reed and Kenneth Rogers, Maurice Mayfield and Franklin McCown.

Many Attend

There were many out of town relatives and friends to attend the funeral. Among them were: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Thomas, Mrs. Annie Thomas, Frank Reed, Mrs. Maggie Reed, Dr. G. S. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Guess, Mrs. John Thompson, Rev. H. Hays, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Gartner, Mrs. Vol. Baugh, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ratliff, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Moore, Editor Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McElroy, Mrs. Watt Skinner, Henry Skinner all of Rogers; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mewhinney, Buckholts; Leslie Green, Mrs. Watt Biogham, Mrs. R. L. Curtis, Temple;

He called the banking situation up for discussion. After the secretary of the treasury and attorney general had aired their views on the matter, Mr. Roosevelt called for a vote. The entire cabinet was in favor of a banking holiday. The president then declared the meeting adjourned.

The following students participated:

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Hubert Luckett; John N. Garner, Joe Dusek; Secretary of State Hull, C. W. Gjedde; Secretary of Treas. Woodin, Curtis Lowe; Sec. of Com. Roper, Dean White; Sec. of War Dern, Eugene Markham; Sec. of Navy Swanson, Charles Leonard; Sec. of Interior Ickes, Frank Brown; Sec. of Agriculture Wallace, Lawrence McClaren; Attorney General Cummings, Hardin Pollard; Postmaster General Farley, Ford Caperton; Sec. of Labor Miss Perkins, May Virginia Sutton; Mrs. Roosevelt, Beulah Collier; Mrs. Hoover, Louise McLane; Mrs. Garner, Susie Mae Price; Herbert Hoover, Roderick Long; Dolly Gann, Evelyn Pressley; Charles Curtis, Oscar Lotz.

The Blue Bird Choral Club and the Cameron band under the direction of Miss Wilkerson and Mr. Francis Cox, assisted with the program.

Four Boys in Wierd Valley Escapade Plot

He was McCall's roommate, and it was his gun which shot Lehman Nelson.

THE CAUSE

The people of Texas are in dire financial distress. The business men, including merchants, wholesale and retail, automobile dealers, blacksmiths, carpenters and abstractors are failing.

Lawyers and doctors are not making expenses.

Bookkeepers, stenographers, salesmen, drummers, school teachers and laborers cannot get employment.

Taxes are due the state, counties, and cities, and interest on bonds are unpaid.

The homes in the cities, towns and country are being foreclosed in default of payment of taxes and interest.

This distressing condition is brought about by the constant drain on the resources of the state for taxes for the state government at Austin.

We pay the gross receipt tax, the inheritance tax, the poll tax, the gasoline tax, the cigarette tax, the fish and oyster tax, the sulphur tax, the occupation tax, and the license fees, in all about 80 million dollars a year. This is in the nature of the Sales Tax. It is added to the price, and passed on to the consumer. It is paid in small amounts, but on every transaction, every day and every hour. It is a secret, deceitful, hidden tax that the people pay and do not know it.

The State Government at Austin is spending 40 million dollars a year for the Highway Commission, and 40 million dollars for schools and colleges. This constant drain to raise the 80 million dollars keeps the state drained dry. It bankrupts the farmer. He has no money to buy, and all commercial business becomes stagnant. This is the cause of the distress. This is the cause of so many failures in the commercial world.

Our law makers, the Governor, Gov. James E. Ferguson, the Senate, and the Lower House should not permit this constant drain for roads, schools and colleges to continue. The building of new roads should be suspended for at least two years, and the expenditures limited to maintenance, not to exceed five million dollars a year; and the 40 million dollars for schools should be reduced to a reasonable expenditure.

The Governor, Gov. Jas. E. Ferguson, the Senate and the Lower House by a little deliberate thinking can well foresee the conditions in January, 1934 if the state government spends in 1933 another 80 million dollars for roads, schools and colleges; and they may surmise the wrath to come.

The condition is so distressing and the outlook so serious that the Legislature has found it necessary to declare a moratorium for the banks. This was a necessary and wise measure. The conditions justified it. It has been approved by the depositors; and they are doing all they can cheerfully and willingly for the banks and for the public good.

The banks, however, must understand that they are not the only class in trouble. The merchants and all other business enterprises are failing. The farmers cannot pay their debts, interest and taxes, and labor is without employment. All of these must receive some consideration from the banks and from the Legislature.

The banks should co-operate with all classes and work for equal and fair justice to all. They should join the great masses and demand of the Legislature a holiday of road construction for two years, and a reduction of the 40 million dollars spent for schools.

Roosevelt cannot help us unless we help ourselves. The State Government at Austin is spending enough money to destroy the state and over turn the government in spite of anything the President can do.

This is not all. The Sales Tax Bill exempts all property of every character from taxation. All property of the banks, their buildings, capital stock, surplus, undivided profits, and all other property is included in this exemption. This is unjust and unfair. Roosevelt says the Sales Tax is criminal.

The trouble with the banks is the same as with all other business enterprises. The drain of 80 million dollars for roads, schools, and colleges leaves the state bare, and there is but little money to deposit, and not enough to pay off the loans already made.

The banks should join with the people and demand of the Legislature that the Sales Tax be defeated. Texas is a great state and there is yet hope for our people if we will stand together and be honest with each other.

prise lie on every side; farmers find no markets for their produce; the savings of many years in many families are gone.

MANY UNEMPLOYED.

"More important, a host of unemployed citizens face the grim problem of existence, and an equally great number toil with little return. Only a foolish optimist can deny the dark realities of the moment.

"Yet the distress comes from no failure of substance. We are stricken by no plague of locusts. Compared with the perils which our forefathers conquered because they believed and were not afraid, we have still much to be thankful for. Nature still offers her bounty and human efforts have multiplied it. Plenty of it at our doorstep, but a generous use of it languishes in the very sight of the supply.

"Primarily, this is because the rulers of the exchange of mankind's goods have failed through their own stubbornness and their own incompetence, have admitted their failure and abdicated. Practices of the unscrupulous money changers stand indicted in the court of public opinion, rejected by the hearts and the minds of men.

HAVE NO VISION

"True they have tried, but their efforts have been cast in the pattern of an outworn tradition. Faced by failure of credit they have proposed only the lending of more money. Stripped of the lure of profit by which to induce our people to follow their false leadership, they have resorted to exhortations, pleading tearfully for restored confidence. They know only the rules of a generation of self-seekers. They have no vision, and where there is no vision the people perish.

"The money changers have fled from their seats in the temple of our civilization. We may now restore that temple to the ancient truths. The measure of the restoration lies in the extent to which we apply social values more noble than mere monetary profit.

JOY OF ACHIEVEMENT

"Happiness lies not in the mere possession of money; it lies in the joy of achievement; in the thrill of creative effort. The joy and moral stimulation of work no longer must be forgotten in the mad chase of evanescent profits. These dark days will be worth all they cost us if they teach us that our true destiny is not to be ministered unto but to minister to ourselves and to our fellow-men.

"Recognition of the falsity of material wealth as the standard of success goes hand in hand with the abandonment of the false belief that public office and high political position are to be valued only by the standard of pride and place and personal profit; and there must be an end to a conflict in banking and in business which too often has given to a sacred trust the likeness of callous and selfish wrongdoing. Small wonder that confidence languishes, for it thrives only on honesty, on honor, on the sacredness of obligations, on faithful protection, on unselfish performance; without them it cannot live.

MUST ACT NOW

"Restoration calls, however, not for changes in ethics alone. This nation asks for action, and action now.

"Our greatest primary task is to put people to work. This is no unsolvable problem if we face it wisely and courageously. It can be accomplished in part by direct recruiting by the government itself, treating the task as we would treat the emergency of a war, but at the same time through this employment accomplishing greatly needed projects to stimulate and reorganize the use of our natural resources.

"Hand in hand with this we must frankly recognize the over-balance of population in our industrial centers and, by engaging on a national scale of redistribution, endeavor to provide a better use of the land for those best fitted for the land. The task can be helped by definite efforts to raise the values of agricultural products and with this the power to purchase the output of our cities. It can be helped by preventing realistically the tragedy of the growing loss through foreclosure, of our small homes and our farms. It can be helped by insistence that the federal, state and local governments act forthwith on the demand that their cost be drastically reduced. It can be helped by the unifying of relief activities which today are often scattered, uneconomical and unequal. It can be helped by national planning for and supervision of all forms of transportation and of communications and other utilities which have a definitely public character. There are many ways in which it can be helped, but it can never be helped by merely talking about it. We must act and act quickly.

"Finally in our progress toward a resumption of work we require two safeguards against a return of the evils of the old order; there must be a strict supervision of all banking and credits and investments; there must be an end to speculation with other people's money, and there must be provision for an adequate but sound currency.

"These are the lines of attack. I shall presently urge upon a new congress in special session detailed measures for their fulfillment, and I shall seek the immediate assistance of the several states.

"Through this program of action we address ourselves to putting our own national house in order and making income balance outgo. Our international trade relations though vastly important, are in point of time and necessity secondary to the establishment of a sound national economy. I favor as a practical policy the putting of first things first. I shall spare no effort to restore world trade by international economic readjustment, but the emergency at home cannot wait in that accomplishment.

WAY TO RECOVERIES

"The basic thought that guides these specific means of national recovery are not narrowly nationalistic. It is the insistence, as a first consideration, upon the interdependence of the various elements in and parts of the United States—a recognition of the old and permanently important manifestation of the American spirit of the pioneer. It is the immediate way. It is the strongest assurance that the recovery will endure.

"In the field of world policy I would dedicate the nation to the policy of a good neighbor—the neighbor who resolutely respects himself and because he does so, respects the rights of others—the neighbor who respects his obligations and respects the sanctity of his agreements in and with a world of neighbors.

MUST GIVE, TOO

"If I read the temper of our people correctly we now realize as we have never realized before our interdependence on each other; that we cannot merely take but we must give as well, that if we are to go forward we must move as a trained and loyal army willing to sacrifice for the good of a common discipline because without such discipline no progress is made, no leadership becomes effective. We are, I know, ready and willing to submit our lives and property to such discipline because it makes possible a leadership which aims at a larger good. This I propose to offer, pledging that the larger purposes will bind upon us all as a sacred obligation with a unity of duty hitherto evoked only in time of armed strife.

ASSUMES LEADERSHIP

"With the pledge taken, I assume unhesitatingly the leadership of this great army of our people dedicated to a disciplined attack upon our common problems.

"Action in this image and to this end is feasible under the form of government which we have inherited from our ancestors. Our constitution is so simple and practical that it is possible always to meet extraordinary needs by changes in emphasis and arrangement without loss of essential form. That is why our constitutional system has proved itself the most superbly enduring political mechanism the modern world has produced. It has met every stress of vast expansion of territory, of foreign wars, of bitter internal strife, of world relations.

UNPRECEDENTED TASK

"It is to be hoped that the normal balance of executive and legislative authority may be wholly adequate to meet the unprecedented task before us. But it may be that an unprecedented demand and need for undelayed action may call for temporary departure from that normal balance of public procedure.

"I am prepared under my constitutional duty to recommend the measures that a stricken nation in the midst of a stricken world may require. These measures or such other measures as the congress may build out of its experience and wisdom, I shall seek, within my constitutional authority, to bring to speedy adoption.

ASK BROAD POWER

"But in the event that congress shall fail to take one of these two courses, and in the event that the national emergency is still critical, I shall not evade the clear course of duty that will then confront me. I shall ask the congress for the one remaining instrument to meet the crisis—broad executive power to wage war against the emergency, as great as the power that would be given to me if we were in fact invaded by a foreign foe.

"For the trust reposed in me I will return the courage and the devotion that befit the time. I can do no less.

"We face the arduous days that lie before us in the warm courage of national unity; with the clear consciousness of seeking old and precious moral values; with the clean satisfaction that comes from the stern performance of duty by old and young alike. We aim at the assurance of a rounded and permanent national life.

WANT ACTION

"We do not distrust the future of essential democracy. The people of the United States have not failed. In their need they have registered a mandate that they want direct vigorous action. They have asked for discipline and direction under leadership. They have made me the present instrument of their wishes. In the spirit of the gift I take it.

"In the dedication of a nation we humbly ask the blessing of God. May He protect each and every one of us. May He guide me in the days to come."

Cameron Business Women Observe National Week

By DELPHYA SCOTT

Thirteen hundred and twenty-five Business and Professional Women's Clubs in an equal number of cities from coast to coast have this week launched the sixth annual observance of National Business Women's Week. The program is varied, and clubs have formulated their own programs but throughout the week emphasis will be placed upon citizenship of business women.

The sixth annual observance of National Business Women's Week has the endorsement of Governor Miriam A. Ferguson of Texas and Mayor C. C. Smith of Cameron has emphasized National Business Women's Week by an official proclamation for the Cameron Business Women who are observing this week.

Sixth Observance

The National Federation of Business & Professional Women's Clubs are sponsoring the sixth annual observance of National Business Week, March 5th to and inclusive of the 11th. This is the largest national organization in the world, having more than 600,000 members.

Growth Rapid

The history of its growth has been phenomenal. In the year 1926-1927 when Miss Lena Madisin Phillips was president, she conceived the idea of investigation in Europe whether business and professional women were interested in learning about the Federation in this country. At this time there was not a single business and professional women's club in Europe. Miss Phillips appointed an international relation commission of which Miss Harriett E. Taylor of New York City was chairman, to investigate in Europe and report whether business and professional women were really interested. Out of Miss Taylor's investigation came the plan for sending a Goodwill Tour of Business Women to Europe in 1928, to make the acquaintance of European women and try to encourage the formation of federation abroad. Sixty-four women representing twenty-five states accompanied that first tour to England, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France. Miss Phillips, then president of the Federation, was the leader.

Stand Against War

A further important step which brought the Federation into close contact with the organizations working in the international field, was the affiliation with the National Conference on the Cause and Cure of War, which was brought about by vote of the annual convention of the B. & P. W. Club held in New Orleans in 1928. At this time Cameron Club was represented by Miss Rose Rischar. Our Federation activities co-operates with other organizations in conference by seeking the ratification of such legislation as entering the United States into the World Court and the Kellogg-Briand Pact. It likewise joined in the campaign conducted by the committee last year to secure 1,000,000 signatures on petitions as addressed to the Geneva Disarmament Conference asking pledges already made for the reduction of National Armaments be put into immediate and unhesitating effect.

Noted Women Work

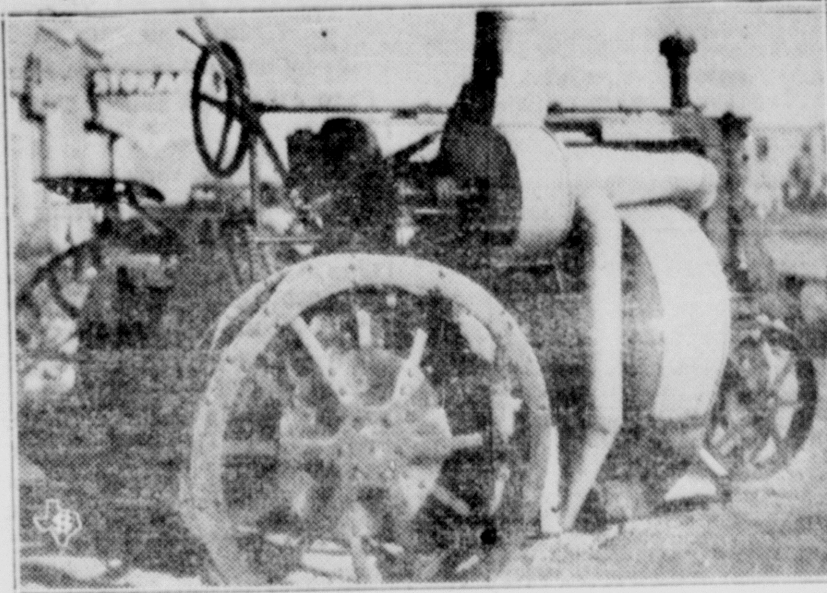

These important phases of international activity have been successively under the supervision of women of outstanding reputation in the international relations field. Miss Marjore Shuler, widely known in magazine world, who has made trips abroad for the newspapers, and has attended a majority of the important meetings of women of this country and abroad since the World War. Miss Josephine Scham, National director of the Girl Scouts of America, and vice chairman of the National Committee on the Cause and Cure of War, who is a recognized authority on international questions, is the present chairman.

Work Abroad

Twenty-one European countries were visited on the initial itinerary trip. Italy was the first European country to form a Federation, in the winter of 1828-29. Austria and France followed the next year.

An International Conference of B. & P. Women was held August 1930 in Geneva, Switzerland to decide whether or not to form an international federation. Mrs. Geline McDonald Bowman was the leader of the delegation from the United States, and Miss Phillips presided. The 16 countries represented unanimously voted to form a Federation by acclamation, and chose Miss Phillips as president, with several foreign women elected as other officers. Since that first conference an international congress has been held in Vienna in 1931, and a meeting of the international board of directors in Paris in 1932. Officers of the international are: President, Miss Lena Madisin Phillips, New York City; Vice President, Dr. Miriam Beth, Vienna; Corresponding Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Henrietta C. Harris, Springfield, Mass.

Picks Eight Acres of Cotton Daily

This tractor cotton-picker, built by A. R. Nesbit of Plainview, Texas, picks eight acres of cotton a day. Tests have shown that the cotton can be picked just as soon as the bolls open, with no danger of damaging green or unopened bolls. Negotiations are now in progress to establish a factory for Mr. Nesbit's picker in Plainview.

ional federation. Mrs. Geline McDonald Bowman was the leader of the delegation from the United States, and Miss Phillips presided. 18 Countries Involved

The Federation now has affiliations with 18 countries, and contacts have been made with influential women of Korea and Japan and the Federation looks forward towards an extension of its activities to the Orient, according to Miss Phillips. The Cameron Club feels grateful toward the Texas-Louisiana Power and Water Company, through the kindness of their local office manager, Mrs. Gladys Watson for providing a place for the club's meetings. A number of portraits of prominent members of the B. & P. W. Club women, nationally known, are framed and hang in the hall.

Inauguration

cal, I shall not evade the clear course of duty that will then confront me.

"I shall ask the congress for the one remaining instrument to meet the crisis—broad executive power to wage a war against the emergency as great as the power that would be given to me if we were in fact invaded by a foreign foe."

Confident of the Future

Expressing confidence in the nation's future, Roosevelt told his tremendous audience that "the only thing we have to fear is fear itself—nameless, unreasoning, unjustified terror that paralyzes needed efforts to convert retreat into advance."

"Plenty is at our doorstep, but a generous use of it languished in the very sight of the supply," the president said. "Primarily, this is because the rulers of the exchange of mankind's goods have failed through their own stubbornness and their own incompetence, have admitted their failure and abdicated."

"Practices of the unscrupulous money changers stand indicted in the court of public opinion, rejected by the hearts and minds of men. The money changers have fled from their high seats in the temple of our civilization. We may now restore the temple to the ancient truths."

His Program of Action

The new national leader outlined a program of action, along these lines:

To put people to work, in part by direct recruiting by the government itself.

Recognition of the overbalances of population in our industrial centers and provisions for a "better use of the land by those best fitted for the land."

Definite efforts to raise the values of our agricultural products and with this create power to purchase the output of our cities.

Prevention of foreclosures of small homes and farms.

Insistence that the federal, state and local governments act forthwith on demand that their cost be drastically reduced.

Unification of relief activities.

National planning for and supervision of all forms of transportation and of communications and other utilities.

To Safeguard Business

Safeguards against return "of the evils of the old order" by strict supervision of all banking and credits and investments; putting an end to speculation with other people's money and provision for "an adequate but sound currency."

"These are the lines of attack."

the president said. "I shall presently urge upon a new congress in special session detailed measures for their fulfillment, and I shall seek the immediate assistance of the several states."

A new feeling for men past fifty

If you've let yourself grow systematically old, here is a way to stimulate yourself without the slightest harm, and, in fact, with effects beneficial to the entire body.

This method of stimulating a sluggish system to new life is a doctor's discovery, so no one need hesitate to try it or believe in it. It is a sane, sensible way to keep keenly alive.

The only medicine you take is a most likeable and remarkable syrup made with fresh herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. The benefits are many, and far-reaching. Its immediate effect on the lower bowel gets rid of lingering poisons better than a powerful laxative. In fact, you will need no other laxative if you take an occasional spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

If you regard yourself in fairly good health now, you might still find after a week or two of this gentle stimulation that you were only in a state of half-health before. It makes an amazing difference in the way one feels, especially at an age when one inclines toward auto-intoxication. (Daily headaches, failing appetite and tiring too easily are apt to be symptoms of a toxic condition.)

Women, too, get decided benefit from a few weeks' regulation with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

The above being the same land conveyed to Michael Ondrijas by F. M. McCall and wife on Nov. 5, 1904 by deed of record in Book 67, Page 410 of the Milam County deed records.

Also all that certain tract or parcel of land lying and being situated in Milam county, Texas, and beginning at a point in the S. line of a certain 300 acre tract of land conveyed by J. A. Buckholts et ux to Hiram Morrison by deed dated April 26th, 1888, 2470 (2470) feet S. 71 E. from the intersection of the said south line with the Buckholts-Yarrellton road; thence N. 19 E. 1299 feet to a stake from which a 11 inch Elm brs. S. 52 E. 30 feet; thence S. 71 E. 1945 feet to a stake in the east line of the original 300 acre tract; thence S. 19 W. 1299 feet to a stake for the S. E. corner of this and also the original tract; thence N. 71 W. 1945 feet to the place of beginning, containing 58 acres more or less.

A reservation of a ten foot road and right of way is herein reserved and excepted from this conveyance, off the entire east line of this tract and there intersecting a similar reservation of ten foot road on the entire south line of a 100 acre tract sold to Matek Sefcik by J. F. and F. C. Mondrick, just expressed in deed from the said J. F. and F. C. Mondrick to said Felix Matula hereinbefore referred to and which deed is made a part of this description in all its parts, effect and reading, so far as the same may apply.

The above being the same land conveyed to Michael Ondreas by Felix C. Matula and wife on June 10th, 1911 by deed of record in Book 96, Page 572, of the Milam County Deed Records, and levied upon as the property of said defendant, John Ondreas, and that on the first Tuesday in April, 1933, the same being the 4th day of said month, at the Court House door of Milam county, in the city of Cameron, Milam County, Texas, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 4 P. M., by virtue of said levy and said Order of Sale, I will sell said above described Real Estate at public vendue, for cash, to the highest bidder, as the property of said John Ondreas.

And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication, in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Cameron Herald, a weekly newspaper published in Milam county.

Witness my hand, this 27th day of February, 1933.
